

Tina M. Kibbe

Department of History
Lamar University
Beaumont, Texas 77710
409.880.8241
tkibbe@lamar.edu

EDUCATION

- Ph.D., History 2012
University at Buffalo, State University of New York, Buffalo, New York
Concentrations: United States, U.S. Women, Science and Medicine
Dissertation: "In 'Fitness' and in Health: Eugenics, Public Health, and Marriage in the United States"
- M.A., History 2004
Lamar University, Beaumont, Texas
Concentrations: United States, African-American
Thesis: "The Desegregation of the Port Arthur Independent School District"
- B.A., History 2002
Lamar University, Beaumont, Texas

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Lamar University, Beaumont, Texas 2013-Present
Instructor
Courses: U.S. History to 1877
U.S. History Since 1877
The Age of Jackson to Reconstruction
Texas History
The History of Public Health in the United States
The History of Medicine
- Galveston College, Galveston, Texas 2014-Present
Adjunct Instructor
Courses: Dual Credit U.S. History to 1877
Dual Credit U.S. History from 1877
- D'Youville College, Buffalo, New York 2011- 2012
Adjunct Instructor
Courses: American Social & Economic History to 1865
- University at Buffalo, State University of New York, Buffalo, New York 2006- 2012
Adjunct Instructor/Teaching Assistant
Courses: Social History of Public Health in America
U.S. History to 1877
U.S. History Since 1865
World Civilization to 1500
World Civilization from 1500

Lamar State College, Port Arthur, Texas
 Adjunct Instructor
 Courses: U.S. History to 1877
 U.S. History from 1877

2005-2006

PUBLICATIONS

BOOK CHAPTER

“Procreating a Superior America Without Poor Jane, Grace, or Doris: Female Field Workers, the Eugenics and Public Health Movements, and the Regulation of Reproductive Behavior,” in Women Who Belong: Claiming a Female’s Right-Filled Place, Marsha R. Robinson, ed. (Cambridge Scholars Publishing, January 2013).

JOURNAL ARTICLES

“School Desegregation in Port Arthur: The Battle Between the Community, the Board, and the Justice Department,” East Texas Historical Journal 44 (Fall 2006): 3-16.

SELECTED DIGITAL

“Eugenics and Genetics in the News in 2013,” Nursing Clio, January 2014.
<https://nursingclio.org/2014/01/02/eugenics-and-genetics-in-the-news-in-2013/>

“Just Add Water...and Sperm,” Nursing Clio, April 2013. <https://nursingclio.org/2013/04/12/just-add-water-and-sperm/>

“What’s So Bad About Eugenics,” Nursing Clio, September 2012.
<https://nursingclio.org/2012/09/14/whats-so-bad-about-eugenics/>

PRESENTATIONS

“Measuring the ‘Fitness’ of the American Citizenry: Eugenics Field Workers and Public Health Nurses in the United States, 1910-1925,” American Association for the History of Medicine Conference, Atlanta, Georgia, May 18, 2013.

“Creating a Superior America: Regulation of Sexual and Reproductive Behavior by the Eugenics and Public Health Movements,” Ohio Academy of History Conference, Columbus, Ohio, March 27, 2010.

“Rhetoric and Remedies of the Eugenics and Public Health Movements in the United States,” Milton Plesur Conference, Buffalo, New York, April 5, 2008.

“Middle-Class ‘Morons’? Eugenic Responses to the ‘Mentally Defective,’ 1890-1927,” Milton Plesur Conference, Buffalo, New York, March 24, 2007.

AWARDS and FELLOWSHIPS

Humanities Institute Summer Research Grant
 University at Buffalo, State University of New York

2010

Milton Plesur Doctoral Research Fellowship, University at Buffalo History Department, University at Buffalo, State University of New York	2009
Institute for Research & Education on Women and Gender Scholarship University at Buffalo, State University of New York	2008
Philadelphia Area Center for the History of Science Dissertation Fellowship Dissertation Research Fellowship	2008
Clarke Chambers Travel Grant, Social Welfare History Archives University of Minnesota	2008

UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Co-Sponsor, Lamar University Walter Prescott Webb Society, 2018-present
Committee Member, SACS Committee, Lamar University, 2018-present
Director, Lamar University History Day Regional Competition, Lamar University, 2017-present
Committee Member, Faculty-Student Relations Committee, Lamar University 2015-present
Faculty Mentor, Texas Academy of Leadership in the Humanities, Lamar University, 2013-present

SERVICE TO PROFESSION

Review of Nancy A. Hewitt and Steven F. Lawson, Exploring American Histories: A Brief Survey with Sources , vol. 2 (Boston: Bedford/St. Martin's, 2013)	2015
--	------

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Historical Association	2007-
American Association for the History of Medicine	2009-
Coordinating Council for Women in History	2013-
Berkshire Conference of Women Historians	2014-
Society for Historians of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era	2014-
Southern Historical Association	2016-
Texas State Historical Association	2016-