

LSCPA Curriculum Vitae

Zachary Dailey, Ph.D.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

1. PhD, Texas Tech University, December 2020, Fine Arts/Theatre
2. MA, Miami University, August 2015, Theatre
3. BFA, Baylor University, May 2013, Theatre Performance

POSITIONS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

1. 2021-Present, Director of Theatre, Lamar State College – Port Arthur, serve as Instructor of Record for core Drama classes, sponsor the Drama Club, direct theatrical productions, advise Drama students
2. 2015-2020, Graduate Part Time Instructor, Texas Tech University, served as Instructor of Record for Theatre and Interdisciplinary Arts courses, additionally served as Box Office Assistant Manager, Research Assistant, and Administrative Assistant as needed
3. 2013-2015, Graduate Assistant, Miami University, served as Instructor of Record for Theatre courses, additionally served as a Production Assistant and Research Assistant as needed

ADDITIONAL RELATED EXPERIENCE

1. 2019-2020, Front of House Assistant, Outpost Repertory Theatre, greeted patrons, sold tickets and memberships, and organized donations
2. 2014-2019, Literary Manager, Pollen Productions, read and approved scripts for theatrical productions, performed research for theatrical productions

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

1. 2020-2021, International Federation for Theatre Research
2. 2019-2021, American Society for Theatre Research
3. 2018-2021, American Theatre and Drama Society

4. 2017-2021, Texas Educational Theatre Association
5. 2015-2021, Association for Theatre in Higher Education

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

1. 2020, Teaching, Learning, and Professional Development Center at Texas Tech University, Unintentional Bias Training
2. 2019-2020, Texas Tech University, TEACH Fellowship
3. 2019, Bilkent University, Ancient Greek Mask and Ritual Performance Workshop
4. 2018, Association for Theatre in Higher Education, Theatre as Transferrable Skills training

LSCPA CAMPUS EXPERIENCE (leave blank if new to LSCPA)